SUMMARY

Results-driven Senior/Staff Frontend Engineer with strong expertise in Angular (15–20), TypeScript, JavaScript internals, and large-scale architecture. Proven track record leading frontend delivery, mentoring teams, and designing scalable systems using Nx monorepos, Clean Architecture, SSR/CSR/SSG, and high-performance UI patterns. Experienced in driving cross-team collaboration, solving complex production issues, and elevating engineering quality across squads. Known for simplifying complex concepts and improving developer productivity through solid architecture, reusable components, and optimized performance strategies.

Alongside industry work, I am the Founder & Lead Instructor at CodeZetta, and a senior instructor at Elevate Egypt and Route Academy, where I deliver modern JavaScript, Angular, frontend architecture, and full-stack training.

Passionate about teaching, community building, and producing advanced technical content that impacts thousands of developers.

Highly recognized for ownership, delivery mindset, strong communication, and the ability to bridge business needs with technical excellence.

EXPERIENCE

❖ Squad Leader, almatar Jan 2025

Alexandria, Egypt

Led the Frontend delivery for multiple business units at Almatar, owning architecture decisions, code quality, and end-to-end execution across large-scale Angular applications. Coordinated with Product, Backend, QA, and Design teams to ensure smooth delivery, accurate planning, and high-quality releases. Provided technical leadership in Angular (17–20), Nx monorepos, clean architecture, performance tuning, and reusable UI patterns. Mentored developers, reviewed PRs, resolved complex production issues, and ensured best practices across squads. Drove improvements in debugging workflows, issue handling, and communication loops between cross-functional teams. Played a key role in stabilizing features, reducing bug rates, improving developer efficiency, and accelerating delivery timelines.
